Synopsis

Prepare to be captivated by the unforgettable journey of the Nashville Assassins, a team of young football players who dare to dream big. In the face of adversity and self-doubt, they forge an unbreakable bond that propels them towards their ultimate goal: a state championship.

Led by the charismatic quarterback, Ethan James, and the determined wide receiver, Marcus "Flash" Thompson, the Assassins navigate the complexities of high school life, balancing rigorous training, academic pressures, and the pursuit of their dreams. Along the way, they encounter setbacks, heartbreak, and moments of triumph that test their limits and shape their futures.

With vivid descriptions that bring the gridiron to life and characters that will stay with you long after you finish reading, Bring It Home is a powerful and inspiring story about the transformative power of sports. It celebrates the resilience of the human spirit, the importance of teamwork, and the unwavering belief in oneself.
