Chapter I: The Turbins' World

The Turbins, a prominent Ukrainian family, face the challenges of their rapidly changing world. Alexei Turbin, a respected doctor, struggles to maintain a semblance of normalcy amidst the chaos. His sisters, Elena and Anya, yearn for simpler times but find themselves drawn into the whirlpool of political events.

Chapter II: The Red Dawn

As the Bolshevik Red Army advances on Kiev, the Turbins and their friends witness the horrors of war firsthand. The street fighting and indiscriminate violence shatter their illusions and force them to confront the true nature of revolution.

Chapter III: Lost and Found

Amidst the turmoil, the Turbins' lives take unexpected turns. Alexei's love for Yulia Reiss, a mysterious stranger, becomes a lifeline in the face of adversity. Elena faces a moral dilemma when she encounters her former husband, who has joined the Reds.

Chapter IV: The Siege of Kiev

Kiev becomes a battlefield as the White Army desperately defends the city against the overwhelming Bolshevik forces. The Turbins' home transforms into a makeshift hospital, where they witness the indomitable spirit of the human soul amidst unimaginable suffering.

Chapter V: The Retreat

As the Whites are forced to retreat from Kiev, the Turbins must make a life-altering decision. They can either follow the army into exile or remain in their shattered city. Each path holds its own risks and uncertainties.

Chapter VI: The Road to Exile

Those who choose exile embark on a harrowing journey across treacherous landscapes. They encounter Cossack bands, former revolutionaries, and the unknown dangers that lie ahead. The weight of their loss and the uncertainty of their future bear heavily on their souls.

Chapter VII: The Shadow of the Past

Back in Kiev, those who remain grapple with the aftermath of war and revolution. The city is now in the hands of the Bolsheviks, and the Turbins struggle to adapt to the new regime. The past continues to haunt them, shaping their decisions and influencing their destinies.

Epilogue: A Legacy of Survival

"White Guard" ends with a poignant reflection on the human cost of revolution. The Turbins and their circle have survived the cataclysm but are forever changed by their experiences. The novel serves as a powerful reminder of the fragility of life and the enduring resilience of the human spirit.
