Death, the Unseen Harvestman

Death in Discworld is far from the stereotypical, skeletal figure cloaked in black. Instead, he is a tall, lanky individual with a penchant for hats and a wry sense of humor. Yet, beneath his unassuming exterior lies a profound understanding of the cycle of life and the delicate balance it maintains.

In Reaper Man, Death finds himself in an unprecedented predicament. His duties as the harbinger of souls have been disrupted, resulting in a backlog
