Early Life and Roots

Mike Attisano's roots in Arlington run deep. Born in 1931, his family has called Arlington home for generations. From a young age, Mike embraced the values of community and service that would come to define his life.

Mike attended Arlington High School, where he excelled both academically and athletically. He was a star football player, earning All-State honors and a scholarship to Boston College.

A Passion for Community

After graduating from college, Mike returned to Arlington and embarked on a successful career in business. However, his true passion lay in serving his community.

Mike became deeply involved in local organizations, volunteering countless hours to make a difference in the lives of others. He served as President of the Arlington Chamber of Commerce, the Arlington Rotary Club, and the Arlington Boys & Girls Club.

Unwavering Civic Engagement

Mike's commitment to his community extended far beyond volunteering. He believed in the power of civic engagement and actively participated in shaping Arlington's future.

Mike served on the Arlington Town Meeting for over 30 years, representing the interests of his constituents with unwavering dedication. He was a strong advocate for education, economic development, and the preservation of Arlington's historic character.

A Legacy of Philanthropy

Throughout his life, Mike generously supported a wide range of charitable organizations and initiatives. He believed in the importance of giving back to the community that had given him so much.

Mike established the Mike Attisano Scholarship Fund, which has provided financial assistance to deserving Arlington students pursuing higher education. He also made significant contributions to the Arlington Food Pantry, the Arlington Senior Center, and many other local organizations.

Recognition and Accolades

Mike Attisano's extraordinary contributions to the Arlington community have been recognized with numerous awards and accolades.

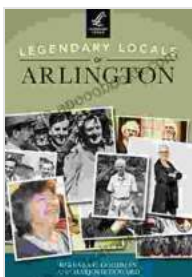

He was named Citizen of the Year by the Arlington Chamber of Commerce in both 1985 and 2002. He received the Paul Revere Award from the Massachusetts Municipal Association for his outstanding service to local government.

In 2015, the Town of Arlington dedicated the Mike Attisano Athletic Complex in his honor, a fitting tribute to his lifelong passion for sports and community.

A Lasting Legacy

Mike Attisano passed away in 2019, leaving behind a void in the Arlington community that will never be fully filled. However, his legacy lives on through the countless lives he touched and the institutions he helped to build.

Mike Attisano was a true legend of Arlington, a man whose unwavering dedication and passion for community will continue to inspire generations to come. His story is a testament to the power of one person to make a profound difference in the world.
