Authentic Transcriptions for Modern Singers

The songs in this collection have been meticulously transcribed by renowned ethnomusicologist Stoyan Yankov, ensuring their accuracy and authenticity. However, they have also been carefully arranged to be accessible to modern singers, with clear notation and detailed annotations.

Whether you are a seasoned professional or a passionate amateur, you will find yourself immersed in the intricacies of Bulgarian vocal techniques. The songs are presented in both original Cyrillic and transliterated English, making them accessible to singers of all backgrounds.

A Living Legacy

Bulgarian traditional music is a living and breathing tradition, constantly evolving and adapting to the changing times. "Passing With The Time" reflects this dynamic nature by showcasing songs that have been passed down through oral tradition for centuries, as well as contemporary arrangements that bridge the gap between the past and the present.

A Journey Through Time

The songs in this collection span centuries, from ancient folk melodies to more recent compositions. You will find yourself transported to a bygone era with the haunting melodies of "Yo Le Le My Nevena" and "Sadila Moma Dzemper," while more modern songs like "Kukuvitsa" and "Nedolyube Le" speak to the resilience and adaptability of Bulgarian music.

A Valuable Resource for Musicians

"Passing With The Time" is not only an invaluable resource for singers but also for musicians of all kinds. The detailed transcriptions provide a wealth of information on Bulgarian vocal techniques, rhythms, and harmonies, making it a treasure trove for composers, arrangers, and music educators.

Connecting with Bulgarian Culture

Beyond its musical significance, "Passing With The Time" offers a profound connection to Bulgarian culture. The songs provide a window into the daily lives, beliefs, and aspirations of the Bulgarian people. You will discover tales of love and loss, joy and sorrow, and the enduring spirit of a nation.
