Written in the same style as Edward Lear's classic limericks, these poems are full of wit, whimsy, and absurdity. You'll find limericks about everything from silly animals to ridiculous people to everyday mishaps. And the best part is, they're all clean, so you can share them with people of all ages.

Here's a sample limerick to whet your appetite:

“There once was a man from Peru,

Whose limericks were quite a few.

He wrote them with glee,

And sent them to me,

And I laughed till my sides were blue.”

If you're a fan of Edward Lear's limericks, then you'll love The Next Hundred Lears Limericks After Lear. And if you're new to limericks, this is the perfect collection to introduce you to this wonderful and witty form of poetry.
