Sunglasses: A Brief History

The earliest known sunglasses were invented by the Chinese in the 12th century. These sunglasses were made from flat pieces of smoky quartz and were used to protect the eyes from the sun's glare. Sunglasses became more popular in the 18th century, when they were adopted by the upper classes in Europe. By the 19th century, sunglasses were being worn by people of all social classes.

Sunglasses Design

Sunglasses come in a wide variety of shapes, sizes, and colors. The most important thing to consider when choosing sunglasses is the shape of your face. Round faces look best in sunglasses with angular frames, while square faces look best in sunglasses with rounded frames. Oval faces can wear any shape of sunglasses.

The size of your sunglasses should also be in proportion to the size of your face. Small faces look best in small sunglasses, while large faces look best in large sunglasses.

The color of your sunglasses is a matter of personal preference. However, certain colors can be more flattering on certain skin tones. For example, warm skin tones look best in warm colors like brown and gold, while cool skin tones look best in cool colors like blue and green.

Sunglasses Trends

Sunglasses trends change every year. Some of the most popular trends for 2023 include:

- Oversized sunglasses
- Cat-eye sunglasses
- Round sunglasses

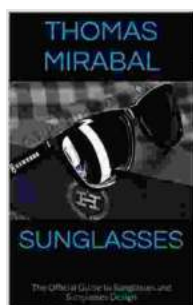

- Square sunglasses
- Aviator sunglasses

Sunglasses Care

Sunglasses are a delicate accessory, so it's important to take care of them properly. Here are a few tips:

- Store your sunglasses in a case when you're not wearing them.
- Clean your sunglasses regularly with a soft cloth.
- Avoid exposing your sunglasses to extreme heat or cold.
- Have your sunglasses adjusted by an optometrist or optician if they become loose or bent.

Sunglasses are an essential accessory for protecting your eyes from the sun's harmful UV rays. With so many different styles and designs available, there's sure to be a pair of sunglasses that's perfect for you. Our comprehensive guide will help you choose the right pair of sunglasses for your face shape, skin tone, and personal style.
