Step Back in Time to the Jazz Age

The Roaring Twenties was a decade of dramatic change and upheaval. The world was recovering from the devastation of World War I, and new technologies and ideas were emerging at a breakneck pace. The United States experienced an unprecedented economic boom, and the stock market soared to dizzying heights.

But the Roaring Twenties was also a time of social and cultural upheaval. Women gained the right to vote, and the flapper lifestyle became all the rage. Prohibition led to the rise of bootleggers and speakeasies, and jazz music filled the airwaves.

Experience the Decade Through the Eyes of Those Who Lived It

The Roaring Twenties Eyewitness History is a captivating collection of firsthand accounts from people who lived through this transformative decade. You'll hear from flappers, bootleggers, jazz musicians, politicians, and ordinary citizens.

These eyewitness accounts bring the Roaring Twenties to life in a way that no textbook can. You'll feel the excitement of the Jazz Age, the thrill of prohibition, and the despair of the Great Depression.
