The Edge

I stand on the precipice, The wind whispers secrets in my ear, A symphony of doubt and fear, Yet, within me, a flame flickers, A flicker of hope and desire.

I look down at the vast expanse, The unknown beckons, A leap of faith, a chance, To embrace the unknown, To let go and defy the known.

Vulnerability

I expose my raw and bleeding heart, A canvas of scars and shattered parts, I lay bare my deepest fears, In the hope that someone hears.

I shed the armor I have worn, The mask that has concealed my torn, I embrace my vulnerability, In its embrace, I find my humanity.

Resilience

Like a willow in the storm's embrace, I bend and sway, but I will not break, For within me lies a strength, A resilience that knows no end.

Through trials and tribulations, I will rise above, With each passing storm, I grow, My spirit unyielding, my heart aglow.
