Shannon Byrne has spent her entire life hidden away in a convent. But when her father dies, she is forced to leave the only home she has ever known and move in with her estranged family, the Byrnes.

The Byrnes are a powerful and wealthy family, but they are also deeply divided. Shannon's arrival only serves to further ignite the tensions within the family.

As Shannon tries to navigate the treacherous waters of family politics, she finds herself drawn to Jamie Byrne, her handsome and charming cousin. Jamie is everything that Shannon has ever wanted in a man, but he is also engaged to another woman.

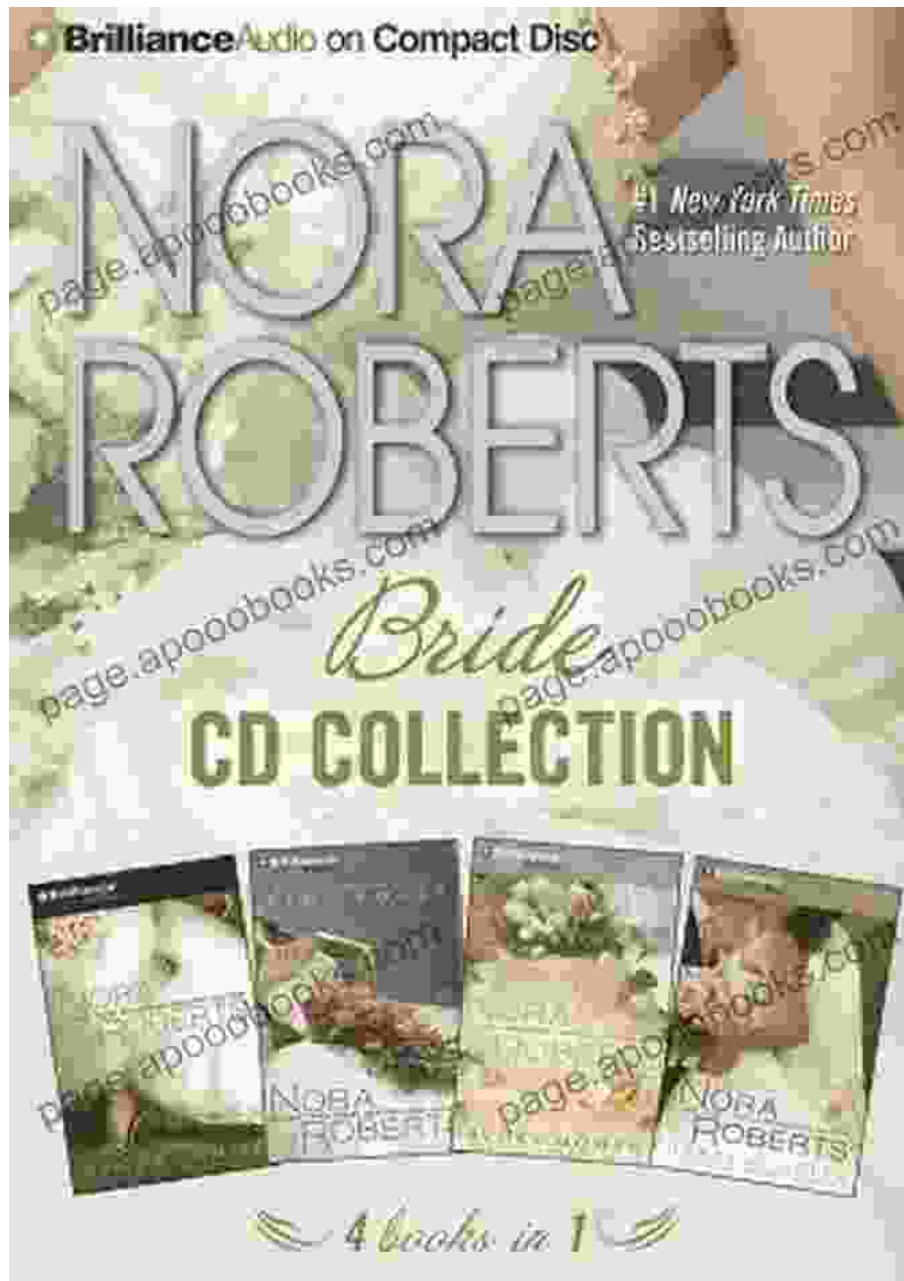

Torn between her heart and her family, Shannon must make a choice that will change her life forever.
